HIP HOP LIVES WITH 27 SOUND AND NY EMCEE, SENTENCE

JANUARY 25, 2007 (NEW YORK, NY) -- 27 Sound Entertainment, New York indie label headed by Matt Stine, the producer of Metermaids, has inked a deal with New York phenom emcee, Sentence.

Sentence, a young rapper who has already performed with some of hip hop's greats, inevitably crossed paths with Metermaids' emcee, Sean McGaughan (p.k.a. Swell), as they were both carving out a name for themselves in the NY clubs. They began performing together, and as a duo found they had a winning combination-- crowds began yelling for more.

"Sentence fits right in with what we are trying to do here at 27 Sound," says Stine. "He is an exciting performer with a fantastic voice and a flow that any producer would want to have over his beats. Our goal is to put out a fresh, new sound in Hip Hop and Pop music, and Metermaids and Sentence are keeping that vision alive."

27 Sound has already released a single featuring the duo entitled, 'Funk Terrorist', and plans to release a Metermaids and Sentence EP later this year.
